Letter to Mayor on Extending Time to Comment on Amendments to DC Comprehensive Plan

DC Office of Planning (OP) released a 1,500-page “redline” draft amended version of the Comp Plan for public review and comment before the draft goes to the Council for hearings and approval. OP set the due date for comments as December 20 for the general public, January 31 for ANCs. The length and complexity of the plan, the extent of the amendments, and the significance of the changes have led numerous residents and community organizations to ask OP to extend the deadline for comments to April 1. At the November meeting, a constituent asked the ANC to make a similar request.
