Police Report.

Meet and talk with new MPD Second District Commander Duncan Bedlion

Commander Bedlion has just started his new position in the Second District and would like to introduce himself to the ANC3B community and take questions.

Discussion with Alice Thompson, DC Office on Aging (DCOA)

Ms. Thompson will speak about DCOA programs and the agency's organizational change to the Department on Aging and Community Living.

Theo Brown, Public Engagement Associates, consultant on local "livability study"

DDOT will soon be launching its "Livability Study Rock Creek Far West," gathering information and perceptions of transportation concerns, transportation choices, and recommendations for assuring all residents have access to safe options for getting around and obtaining goods and services they need. The study will cover all of ANC3B as well as ANC3D, west of Burleith/Georgetown, beyond Glover-Archbold Park, out MacArthur Boulevard and the Palisades, to the river on the south, the Maryland state line on the west and Massachusetts Avenue on the north.

Proposed letter to Mayor about budget for homeless and other issues

The Commission will consider a letter recommending spending on more psychiatric beds, daytime centers for homeless men in the community, and other priority matters for the ANC.

Updates and Information

- Status of 311 cases and other requests to DDOT on transportation issues in ANC3B.
- Introduction of Emily Curley, new Ward 3 representative to DC Bicycle Advisory Council
