Grant Request from Friends of Glover Park. Dean Hill, the treasurer for the Friends of Glover Park, and representatives from Stoddert Recreation Center presented a request for $785 to purchase cheerleading uniforms for the Stoddert Recreation Center cheerleading team. This request was initially presented at the April 16 ANC 3B meeting but consideration was delayed pending close-out of a previous grant to FoGP. Commissioner Cohen announced that the previous grant had now been successfully concluded and that ANC 3B was free to consider the current request.

The Stoddert Recreation Center cheerleading is open to all girls 8-12. Fifteen girls are in the program, 13 of which live in Glover Park. The girls will be competing in citywide competitions against teams from other recreation centers and schools. The cheerleading uniforms will be used this spring then cleaned and boxed for use in subsequent years. Commissioner Blevins presented a motion to approve the grant request. It was properly seconded and passed unanimously.

Adjournment. Commissioner Lane asked for a motion to adjourn. It was properly seconded and passed unanimously. The meeting was adjourned at 7:40 p.m.
